Wisconsin Supreme Court Upholds Constitutionality of Compensation Law

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 14.—The Missouri Supreme Court today issued a writ of ouster enjoining the International Harvester Company from doing business in Missouri, and fining the trust $50,000. It was Missouri which first ousted the Standard Oil Co. from that state as a combination in restraint of trade.

The decision was the result of a report by Special Commissioner Theodore Brace, filed Sept. 6, on an ouster suit begun when Governor Hadley was attorney general. The report alleged that the company violated the Missouri trust laws by controlling practically all the standard plants and makes of harvesting machinery. The company's reply admitted its connection with the New Jersey parent corporation, but denied that it had violated any of the Missouri state laws.

JEREMIAH T. BURKE DIED AT BERKELEY ON SUNDAY LAST

BERKELEY, Cal., Nov. 14.—Jeremiah T. Burke, for many years political agent of the Southern Pacific railroad in this state, died Sunday at his home here.

"Jerry" Burke, as he was widely known, was the right-hand man of William F. Herrin, chief of the Southern Pacific's legal staff and was a familiar figure at state political conventions and sessions of the legislature for many years.

Mr. Burke was born at Joliet, Ill., in 1859, and came to California about thirty years ago.
Soon after his arrival here he was appointed assistant secretary of the San Francisco Clearinghouse association, a position which he held up to two or three years ago. He handled much of the bank's legal business, and in the eighties represented the clearinghouse association at the state legislature.

In 1892 he went to Los Angeles to take part in the re-organization of the electric street car lines of that city. San Francisco banks being heavily interested in the system. Later, on the death of O. A. Hale, he was made president of the San Jose Interurban railroads, and soon thereafter tax attorney for the Southern Pacific company. These two positions he held at the time of his death.

MEETING WAS PUT OFF UNTIL TONIGHT

Owing to the banquet given last night to Senator Smith, the city trusttees adjourned until tonight. At the meeting tonight a new city engineer may be appointed. At least an engineer will be appointed to prepare plans and specifications for sewer-ing

Former Santa Anan is One of Trio of Heirs

The death last Friday of A.
H. Odell, a venerable recluse of Los Angeles, developed the fact that a former Santa Ana woman, Mrs. A. C. Scholes, a niece of the recluse, is one of three heirs to the Odell estate of $50,000, minus $5000 to be devoted to a lot in the cemetery and a monument to the deceased.

Mrs. Scholes, who lives at 2127 Sheridan road, Los Angeles, is the wife of Prof. A. C. Scholes who was formerly bookkeeper for the Griffith Lumber Company, here, and who was director of a big chorus choir in the Christian church of this city while living in Santa Ana. He is still engaged in musical work here, coming down each week to give private lessons.

The deceased uncle of Mrs.
Scholes, A. H. Odell, was a brother of former Gov. Odell of New York, who is one of the heirs.
The third heir to the Odell estate which is mostly city property, is John Odell, of Waterville, Kan.

Mrs. Scholes' husband is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Scholes of Ross street and both she and her husband are well known here.

LABOR FEDERATION HEAD IS FOR RECALL OF JUDICIARY

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 14.—The unqualified endorsement of organized labor is given the initiative, the referendum and the recall in the report of President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, submitted yesterday to the delegates of the thirty-first annual convention of the organization. President Gompers reported that a real representative democracy had never been known in the United States because of the general absence of direct legislation principles.

In the main, the report declares for, and says organized labor demands:
The referendum, the initiative and the recall.
Passage of the so-called anti-injunction bills at the next session of congress.

UNEARTHED. TWO SKELETONS OF INDIANS

Excavation at Serra Produces Bones Buried in the Long Ago

VICINITY ONCE
NATIVE VILLAGE

Miguel Yorba, Near Old Pryor Ranch-house, Finds De-cayed Remnants

Digging into the side of a hill for a foundation for a barn, Miguel Yorba has unearthed skeletons from what was once an Indian burying-ground.
The bones were discovered near the old Pryor ranch house at Serra, three miles below San Juan Capistrano.

Years ago metates were found in the vicinity. Even now occasionally John Landell or some of the other ranchers at Serra plow up stone implements used in the long-ago by natives. There was every indication that a century or two ago there was a large settlement of Indians there.

A few days ago Yorba began digging away earth from the point of a hill that he might lay a foundation for a barn. At a depth of five or six feet he unearthed decayed bones of two Indian skeletons. The bones must have been in the earth for a long period. Of one skull there was little left but the jaw-bone and the teeth. The eye teeth were unusually long but worn flat, indicating that the Indian whose teeth they were was aged.

RICHESON WILL FACE JURY JAN. 15

Objection By Defense to Early Date; Courts Should Move Quickly, Said Attorney

BOSTON, Nov. 14.—Clarence V. T.
Richeson, the Cambridge minister indicted for the murder of Miss Avis Linnell, will face a judge and jury on January 15, the date fixed for his trial last yesterday afternoon.

It was nearly 5 o'clock when the former pastor appeared in the suffolk county superior court. He took his place in the steel cage for criminals, and remained standing during the proceedings. It took the clerk seven minutes to read the indictment, and at its conclusion Richeson, in a clear voice and without any emotion, pleaded "not guilty."

The date for the trial proposed by District Attorney Joseph Pelletier was strenuously opposed by former State Senator W. A. Morse, the pastor's counsel. Attorney Morse declared it had been impossible thus far for the defendant's counsel to hold a meeting, and asked for a continuance of six months. Mr. Morse said John Lee of Virginia, who is to be chief counsel, would be unable to meet the other counsel in the case before the end of this month at the earliest.

The district attorney said he had notified the attorneys that he would ask that the date be set today, and declared that American courts should move more quickly in criminal cases.
Judge Sanderson agreed with the district attorney and said two months was ample time.

BANQUET GIVEN SANTA ANA'S FRIEND

In Regard to Tariff Revision:
"Begin on Lemons Or Iron Ore?"

INTERESTING TALK
BY SENATOR SMITH

High Tribute Paid Judiciary by Distinguished Guest of Last Night

Following the banquet tendered him at Elks Hall last night, United States Senator William Alden Smith, discussed a number of national issues in an interesting manner. He did not say in so many words that he opposes the recall of the judiciary, but his words of confidence in the great body of jurists who sit upon the American bench could be taken no way but that he does oppose it. He declared himself to be an ardent protectionist, said that while the present tariff law needs correction in many items, yet it is the best that could be arranged under present conditions. Flat-footedly he opposes the income tax.

The banquet was given by friends and admirers of the senator at Elks Hall, who, with his son, William Alden Smith, Jr., has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs.
George R. Smith, and his sister, Mrs.
Ella Fyfe, at their residence at the corner of French and Stafford streets.
That visit was ended this morning when the senator and his son started for Grand Rapids, Mich., the senator to continue on to Washington and his son to the University of Michigan.

The early part of the evening last night was turned over to hand-shaking. Senator Smith greeted his old Santa Ana friends and met new friends. The banquet was spread in the banquet hall of the Elks, and to it over 100 men sat down. The tables were beautifully decorated, the menu very pleasing and music by Babize's orchestra added flavor to the general air of congeniality and good fellowship that pervaded the room.

Mayor's Welcome

Assemblyman Clyde Bishop presided happily as toastmaster. He declared that the banquet was not intended to be formal, but as showing the warmth Santa Ana citizens held for Senator Smith and his relatives who have endeared themselves to Santa Ana. Mayor Frank E. called upon to respond to "Welcome," said:

"I count it one of the greatest pleasures and privileges of my life to welcome United States Senator Smith, whom I have known many years. I have followed his course through the lower house of congress, and then through the upper house.
We have seen him pour oil on troubled waters. I hope to some day see him president of the United States.
It takes a man of broad mind and cool deliberation to hold that office, and such a man is the man who is our guest tonight. I honor him because of his love for and tender care of his parents. Never a day passes but their welfare is uppermost in his mind. To him, we bid thrice welcome."

His Subject, "Progress" Rev. H. E. Murkett, pastor of the First Methodist church, was asked to speak upon "Progress," which he did in a happy, entertaining way. He spoke of the advancement in trolley traffic, the growth of crops of beans and lemons.

"We have more voters than we used to have," he said.

Superior Judge Z. B. West responded to "The Judiciary."

"We refer to that stalwart and immovable branch of our government as our safeguard," said the judge. It is amazing how it has stood all tests of years. Lately you may have noticed an inclination to question the integrity of the judiciary, and we may all have felt impetuous to that sentiment by remaining silent when we should have spoken, or by speaking when we should have remained silent.

"To that extent we are guilty of allowing the seeds of discontent to be spread, which in time may threaten the very foundations of our commonwealth. I believe that a great percentage of judges are men of high integrity. The greatest and ablest body of jurists in the world is the United States Supreme Court."

Toastmaster Bishop said that many people seem to demand that the courts be perfect, when as a matter of fact they are a human institution, fraught with human frailties.

"Too often we question the actions of judges, and the actions of legislators, without having any adequate knowledge of the reasons for their acts, when if we knew the facts we would uphold them. Such criticism is wrong."

"The American Press"
J. P. Baumgartner was called upon to respond to "The American Press."
"I cannot see," said he, "why the judge, the legislator or the public officer is any more sacred than the common man."

ATTEND MASS MEETING AND REGISTER TONIGHT

Women who have not registered must do so before midnight tonight, if they want to vote at the bond election to be held Dec. 14, at which time there will be submitted a proposal of an issue of $200,000 for a new high school and $25,000 for a new grammar school.

There will be registration clerks at the Grand Opera House tonight. Opportunity will be given the women to register.

The occasion of the meeting at the Grand Opera House tonight is to hear J. H. Francis, superintendent of the Los Angeles city schools. Prof. Francis was formerly principal of the polytechnic high school of Los Angeles. He is a firm believer in polytechnic schools, and his discourse tonight will show that his experiences have led him to an enthusiastic partisanship for these schools. The mass meeting tonight will be presided over by J. A. Cranston, superintendent of the Santa Ana schools.

GOVERNMENTS FAVORS
SETTLERS ON U. S. LAND

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Settlers on government irrigation projects who find they have taken more land they are able to meet the various charges on may relinquish part of it and have the payments already made retained part, according to a decision tler may relinquish a second tract if he still finds himself overburdened, but the minimum area he may hold is ten acres.

IMMIGRATION VIA NEW YORK HAS FALLEN OFF

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Immigration through the port of New York has shown a falling off. In the annual report of Commissioner of Immigration William Williams for the year ending June 30, 1911, made public today, it is stated that during the period 749-642 aliens came into the country, as compared with 786,094 the previous year.

Fourteen thousand five hundred aliens were deported during last year.

WHAT ABOUT BUYING YOUR HOLIDAY GIFTS AT HOME?

(ADAPTED FROM THE LONG BEACH PRESS)

You live in Santa Ana—Why? Because you would rather live here than elsewhere. Because this city has more advantages, more things to your liking, than other cities. Perhaps because it is to your interest to live here.

Now, the very reasons why you live in Santa Ana are the identical reasons why you should keep your patronage at home—give it to Santa Ana merchants. You should do this because you would prefer to do it, rather than to go posting off to Los Angeles to line the coffers of the big department stores with dividends. You should trade here because the Santa Ana stores have what you want. They study local conditions.
They familiarize themselves with the desires and needs of Santa Ana buyers. Therefore, it should be more satisfactory for you to buy here.

Furthermore, it is to your interest to patronize Santa Ana stores, rather than those of Los Angeles. There is no need here to expand this idea. You realize its truth. You have proven it many a time. Why not start in on this home-buying line by making your purchases for the Christmas holidays in local stores?

13 WARSHIPS TO BE USED BY REBELS

The Revolutionists Propose to Make Combined Attack
By Land and Sea

GEN. LI TO MEET FOREIGN SECRETARY OF REPUBLIC

Canton Policed and Ruled By Pirates and Thugs—Yuan Shi Kai in Peking

SHANGHAI, Nov. 14.—The rebels today are preparing to send their newly acquired thirteen warships, surrendered by Admiral Sah to Nanking. It is planned to wage a simultaneous attack by land and sea. While the warships bombard the city the rebels will take advantage of the opportunity to attack the city walls.
Rebel leaders here are confident the imperialists will soon be forced to surrender, as it is known that their funds are low, and their chances of replenishing their dwindling supply of food and ammunition are slender.

The emissaries of General Li Yuen Heng, commander of the revolutionary forces arrived here today to meet Wu Ting Fang, secretary of foreign affairs of the proclaimed republic and former Chinese Minister to America.

Martial law has been proclaimed at Canton. Robber chiefs are practically in control of the city, and pirates and brigands have been made policemen.

WU TING FANG URGES
ABDICATION OF REGENT

SHANGHAI, Nov. 14.—Wu Ting Fang, former Chinese Minister to the United States, who was appointed Secretary of Foreign Affairs under the proposed reform administration, has telegraphed a long address to Pekin, urging the regent, Prince Chun, to abdicate. He points out that since the Emperor's edict admitting responsibility for the present conditions and promising reforms there has been an atrocious massacre and ten provinces have severed themselves from the throne without a struggle.

Wu Ting Fang adds that nothing but the adoption of republicanism can bring peace and stop the shedding of blood. The regent, he says, should emulate the example of the ancient emperors, Yao and Han, who abdicated after choosing the best available substitutes.

"Our voice is hoarse and our tears are exhausted. No more can be said." Thirteen vessels of the Imperial fleet went over to the revolutionists this morning, whistling the white flag between 9 and 10 o'clock. One of the largest cruisers steamed up the river, past the settlement, and dipped the white ensign in salute to the foreign warships, to which none of them responded.

Yuan Shi Kai, the last prop of the throne, has reached Peking at last. He arrived today, accompanied by 2000 troops, and was warmly greeted by the administration.

In honor of his arrival an edict was issued appointing him commander of all the troops in the vicinity of the capital. Great efforts are being made to induce him to accept the premiership, but he has given no definite answer.

The opinion is held in the Legations that there are serious complications in store for China and greater sufferings than she has yet endured. The prospects of foreign intervention by other Powers than Russia and Japan are beginning to be discussed.

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 14.—It is reported here today that adherents of General Bernardo Reyes, the would-be president of Mexico, have quietly enlisted five thousand men and have collected a big war fund preparatory to attacking the Maderistas. It is rumored the governor of a certain Mexican state is betraying Madero and is receiving arms and ammunition, in readiness for the revolt.

CALIFORNIA BAR ASSOCIATION IS BITTER AT RECALL

President Helm, at Annual Convention, Brands It Social Poison

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 14.—The recall of the judiciary by popular vote was characterized as "social poison" and a menace to the "stability of the State," in the annual address made yesterday by President Lynn Helm of Los Angeles at the opening of the second annual convention of the California Bar Association.

So menacing will the new privilege become, declared President Helm, that the people will repent the acceptance of it, repudiate it, and a wise, progressive, independent judiciary will be secure in a realm where envy, malice and ignoble strife may not invade. It has linked itself with things immortal—the immortal can not be made to die.

The committee on criminal law and procedure made a long report, and its two specific recommendations were made a special order of business for tomorrow. These advise that two constitutional amendments, killed in the last Legislature, be resubmitted to the legislators for adoption. The amendments provide for a three-fourths jury verdict in criminal cases and grant prosecuting attorneys to comment upon the refusal of an accused to testify.

Brief obituaries were read of three deceased members of the association, Walter J. Trask and Gilbert D. Munson of Los Angeles, and Alex A. Heils of San Francisco.

LEMON RATES WILL COME UP AT ONCE

Citrus Growers and Railroads Notified of Retrial of the Lemon Rate Case

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.—The Interstate Commerce Commission is to retry the lemon rate case of Southern California immediately. It has notified the officials of the Southern Pacific, Santa Fe and San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake roads and the lemon growers of the south.

Representatives of the growers and G. W. Luce of the Southern Pacific, Edward Chambers of the Santa Fe and other railroad men and attorneys are now on the way to Washington.

The case affects about 50,000 carloads of lemon shipments annually, valued at $7,500,000.

Recently the Commerce Court permanently enjoined the commission from enforcing its ruling reducing the rate from $1.15 to $1. The court held that the commission erred in reducing the rate on the ground that the Southern California growers had to meet European competition in Eastern cities of this country.

CALIFORNIANS ON HAND TO DEFEND LEMON INTERESTS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—G. H. Powell, general manager of the Citrus Protective League; A. M. Mortenson, traffic manager, and E. G. Dezell, assistant general manager of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange, and A. F. Call, counsel for the growers, arrived in Washington last night to appear before the Interstate Commerce Commission Wednesday in the lemon rate hearing.

GLASSSELL STREET BRIDGE IS OPENED

Orange News: The new bridge on South Glasssell street, spanning the Santiago creek, stands completed, and will be opened for traffic at 5 o'clock this afternoon, according to an announcement given out today by Supervisor Fred W. Struck.

The work on the new bridge has been pushed at a lively rate by Contractor George Keuchel and his men, and is being finished in good time. The structure as it stands is a splendid piece of work and an unmeasured improvement over its successor.

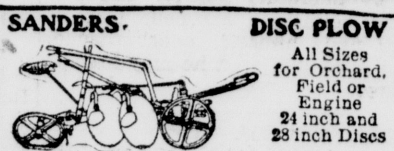

A fair-sized crowd was attracted to the center street school last evening, where a reception was given to the teachers by the Parent-Teacher Association.

A splendid musical program was arranged, including four orchestra selections, a vocal and a cornet solo. Following the music the guests were

The musical program opened with two orchestra selections. Professor Bixby of the Center street school contributed a cornet solo, which was followed by another orchestra piece. Miss Schropshire then favored the gathering with a vocal selection, "Red Roses," which was encored. The program closed with a final selection by the orchestra.

Prof. H. O. Williams, principal of the Sacramento High School, is an over Sunday visitor with his sister, Mrs. S. M. Craddick, and his mother, Mrs. D. H. Williams.

Mr. E. T. Williams, charge d'affaires in China, who at present is handling American affairs during the trouble in that country, acting minister in the absence of Mr. Calhoun, who has been in the United States for the last six months, is a brother of Prof. Williams and Mrs. S. M. Craddick.

The Ladies' Bible Class of the Presbyterian church entertained the men last evening with a banquet given in the bungalow at the rear of the church. The evening was spent pleasantly with games, chief of which was a farce track meet, full of many comical and fun-making events.

Mr. O. Bowen of Grand Junction, Colo., arrived here last evening and is expecting to make his home. Mr. Bowen was formerly of Osborne, Kansas, and is meeting many former friends here.

ZEMO MAKES ASTONISHING ECZEMA CURES

"WE PROVE IT"
Every day ZEMO gives relief and cures men, women and children in every city and town in America whose skins are on fire with torturing ECZEMA rashes and other itching, burning, scaly, and crusted skin and scalp humors.

ZEMO and ZEMO (ANTISEPTIC) SOAP, two refined preparations, will give you such quick relief that you will feel like a new person.

We give you three reasons why we recommend and endorse ZEMO and ZEMO SOAP for all skin and scalp eruptions.

1st. They are clean, scientific preparations that give universal satisfaction and are pleasant and agreeable to use at all times.

2nd. They are not experiments, but are proven cures for every form of skin or scalp affections whether on infants or grown persons.

3rd. They work on a new principle. They do not glaze over the surface, but they penetrate to the seat of the trouble and draw the germ life from underneath the skin and destroy it. In this way a complete cure is effected in any case of SKIN OR SCALP ERUPTION.

IMPERIAL VALLEY COTTON GROWERS' INCORPORATION

EL CENTRO, Nov. 14.—The cotton growers of the Imperial Valley have decided to incorporate, and will undertake the work of financing the entire cotton crop of the valley, to build warehouses and other buildings needed to take care of the crop.

At a meeting of growers held here yesterday, a committee of eleven was appointed to complete the incorporation and to act as a board of directors for the first year.

The directors chose "Imperial Valley Cotton Growers' Exchange" as the name for the association. The association is to be mutual, and non-profit bearing in form. El Centro was chosen as headquarters and the principal place of business.

At the meeting it was decided that the association should have full power in the marketing of the entire crop. If prices are not suitable, it was decided that the crop should be held in warehouses until prices touched a higher level, or a mark at which cotton growing could be engaged in with a profit.

WIFE OF CLEVER HOOSIER NOVELIST GRANTED DIVORCE

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 14.—A decree of absolute divorce was granted yesterday in the superior court of this county to Mrs. Louise Fletcher Tarkington, wife of Booth Tarkington, the novelist and playwright.

Mrs. Tarkington had not asked for alimony. In her complaint she alleged that the defendant treated her with cruelty and that they had lived apart for several months. Tarkington did not resist.

The custody of Mr. and Mrs. Tarkington's 5-year-old daughter is given to Mrs. Tarkington.

SAN BERNARDINO TO HAVE IMMENSE EXHIBIT SPACE

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 14.—Some idea of the scale on which the second National Orange Show will be put on next February can be gained when it is stated that the floor space for exhibition purposes will be equal to that in the great and world famed Madison Square Garden of New York.

The show will be housed under two immense tents, either of which will be twice the size of the largest tent used last year, and it is expected these will provide room for all comers. However, if it is found necessary, it is possible a third tent will be secured.

RIALTO ALMOST AT GOAL OF BIG TOURIST HOTEL

RIALTO, Nov. 14.—The tourist hotel subscription list reached $21,550, and from the enthusiasm aroused and the determination of its residents to acquire an up-to-date hotel there is every reason to believe that the total of $35,000 will be reached by next Saturday night, and that ground will be soon broken for the hotel, which this section has for many years sorely needed.

BANQUET GIVEN FOR

lawyer, the doctor or the newspaperman. As a rule men are called to public office because of the confidence of the people; as a rule they are men of high character; as a rule we owe them every respect; but if political conditions are such that the best men are not called to office, the citizens have every right to voice their protest against the abuse of the confidence placed in them.

"The newspaper comes close home to every citizen. In the criticism of public officers, spoken of by others here tonight, the press is probably the greatest malefactor. But the press must be credited with its correcting power. Its tone is improving.
Newspapermen realize their responsibility more fully than ever before.
The personnel is better than ever before. We require a certificate of a physician who doctors our bodies, and we ought to require a certificate of proficiency from men entering journalism. So, all over the country we see schools of journalism springing up, lifting the standard of journalism."

Power That Grips

"Friendship" was the subject of a toast by Rev. J. A. Stevenson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.
"We hear of all kinds of power," said the speaker, "but the greatest power is that of heart power, that grips and holds after every other power is absolutely impotent. It was just such a sentiment that prompted this banquet tonight. We honor our guests for his high achievements. We honor him because he is a dutiful and loving son."

"The biggest thing in life is friendship. We ought to know friendship in a national way, knowing no sections and no factions." Tonight, Senator Smith, we express our sentiment toward you. We think you are a bully good fellow, and we like you."

Deputy County Clerk J. C. Burke entertained his hearers with a Ger-man's interpretation of the "Declaration of Independence." The oration brought great applause.

Pride of City

Rev. C. H. Secombe, pastor of the First Congregational church, answered to "Civic Pride." He said that Santa Ana is proud of their city, and prone to be content and not to go out after newcomers. He referred to the traditional Santa Ana wind, so-called, and declared it to be a blessing in that it purifies the atmosphere.

"This city is our home," said he,
"and we catch a vision of, not a group of isolated men, not investors, but as an organic unity, where everything tends to the upbuilding of our city. Speaking for the pulpit, we stand shoulder to shoulder with you for the betterment of the city."

"This is a city of homes. As we grow may we have homes that are lived in the year round, not houses that are mere playhouses for two or three months in the year."

Senator Introduced

In introducing Senator Smith, the toastmaster said:

"In public life there are two kinds of men. One ever clings to politics, with his every utterance and act warped by favor; the other clings to principle. The latter kind of man is a solid landmark. I introduce to you a man whose public activities show him to be a man who clings to principle. We are pleased to speak of him as the third senator from California."

"When it came to the matter of the success or failure of our lemon industry, we found him upon the right side of the roll call. His friendship aided in winning recognition for Newport Harbor and secured an appropriation for the survey and establishment of harbor lines."

"When the two factions of the Republican party meet in contest for the nomination of a man to run for president of the United States, they may look to Michigan for a compromise, and Michigan will name Senator Smith."

Senator Speaks

Senator Smith spoke feelingly of the affection this community has for his parents and sister, and said he believed the banquet was given in a disposition to honor them. He expressed himself as deeply touched by the friendship of the city.

"This is an attractive community," declared he. "Everywhere is kindness and good cheer. I shall always come as often as possible." Speaking jocularly of what he might discuss with safety, he said it would be the climate.

"This country is largely governed by the mighty power of the press," said he. "Many public men fall before it. As a publisher myself, I hope the day will never come when the press will be the sole judge and arbitrator of public thought. The press is growing better—and louder."

Referring to what had been said concerning the judiciary, he said:

"I would not enforce my views upon California. This state may go to any length without it being my place to protest or rebuke. But I also have a pride in law, being a member of that profession. I cannot forget that in a republic the courts are the refuge of the minority. I do not believe that justice can be bought."

He pictured a scene witnessed by him and his son. It was in the United States Supreme Court after, justices Vanderbent and Lamar were sworn in, when attorneys waited to argue the great Standard Oil case. Justice Hughes at that time rendered the decision declaring unconstitutional the law of Alabama making it a crime for a negro to break a contract of labor.

Strongest Impression

"I saw President McKinley tell the representatives of the nation of the world that this country needed no advice as to the settlement of the Spanish war, but the scene that made the strongest impression on my mind was that scene in the highest court of the land when justice was done that poor negro Bailey of Alabama.
Tell me that judicial inquiry is tainted. I point you to a court whose judgments, while they may err here and there, are guided by the highest duty and have at heart the righteous interpretation of the law."
Passing to the toast to senator

SHOP EARLY

Every year the people who are prospective patrons of the merchants selling in seasonal holiday goods warned to do their shopping early.
at warning is appropriately given again this year. There is every reason for both sides that the shopping for the holidays should be done early in the season.
It affords the merchants a chance to order the stock with less help where buying is spread over a longer period and as a result they are able to give their patrons that benefit and they have goods cheaper.
It gives them also a chance to order the amount of goods which they dispose of and to order in an effort to supply the trade fully.
The people who are buying are given an opportunity to choose from greater assortment and to be able to shop without inconvenience or discomfort which is occasioned through shopping with crowds during the last part of the season.
In both classes, the merchants and patrons will be able to do the best possible through accepting the early shopping for the holiday shopping early.
It is but a feature of wise policy which all should have impressed upon their minds to follow.
Shop early and profit thereby—

Our Washington Letter

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—That the United States government is "held up" and made to pay exorbitant prices for coal and oil for fuel is the charge made by Brig. Gen. J. B. Alshire, Quartermaster General of the Army, in his annual report now made public.
By law, fuel supplies for the army must be purchased under the bidding system, the lowest bidder getting the contract. Gen. Alshire says that under the present system, bidders communicate the amount of their bids to another, and trade agreements spring up high prices are thereby maintained.

As an example of the excessive prices demanded and obtained under the bidding system, Gen. Alshire cites the case of the transport Burnside, operating between the Pacific coast and the Philippines. On one occasion it was necessary to coal the ship under an emergency without bids. In open market, coal was chased at $3.60 a ton, for 400 tons, the army had paid $5.25 a ton for the same grade of coal, under the bidding system. Four hundred dollars was saved on the one chase, and it is estimated that by bidding regularly in the open market 900 a year could be saved in coal chases for this vessel alone. Similar conditions prevail on the Atlantic coast and also in the purchases of another coal for use in army posts.
General Alshire asks that congress give him authority to use his discretion in purchasing fuel, so that the army may escape the present tem of excessive prices. Such authority has already been granted to commanders of the Navy Department.

His 79th Birthday

Rev. F. S. Haughwout, of 714 Hickey street, was 79 years old yesterday, and Mrs. Haughwout gave him a family birthday dinner at noon, having as guests Mrs. Milton of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sawyer of Fullerton. Mrs. Sawyer is Mr. Haughwout's niece and Mrs. Milton is the wife of his nephew, who was detained at home by important business. Last evening Mr. Haughwout was the recipient of a magnificent bouquet of chrysanthemums and maidenhair ferns from Miss Edith Gutzweiler.

Mr. Haughwout is hale and hearty, but for a "game leg" as he calls it, the result of a wound received at the battle of Shiloh half a century ago.

Music Section Program

The music section of the Ebell met yesterday to discuss the lives and Carefully observe yesterday's corner before taking the exercises we give today or those we shall give later.

An absolutely essential thing to remember is that the thought must control every movement made in these breathing studies. If it be properly concentrated upon that locality of the lungs to which we wish the breath sent there must the breath surely follow. It is the acquiring of this same conscious control, this mental command of certain organs, which constitutes the singer's technical training, hence the relative progress of pupils according as they are gifted with the power of mental concentration and facility of perception.

We shall first study a few details of inhalation, expelling the breath without much thought of it.

I. A reclining position for first exercises, the head on level with the body.

II. Start with most of the breath expelled, but observing that chest does not sink. The chest is the singer's reservoir upon which he draws for breath only in emergency.

III. Now with one hand, lightly resting over the diaphragm inhale deeply and slowly thinking the breath to the lowest and foremost portion of the lungs. Count four slowly and exhale. Repeat about five times.

IV. With tips of fingers touching the sides just under the ribs repeat the inhalation feeling as marked extension of lungs as possible without the least strain. Count, exhale, and repeat five times.

V. Place the backs of fingers of each hand under the back just under the ribs. Inhale as before and feel for the expansion of those large back lobes of the lungs. Count, exhale and repeat.

Inhale through the nose, exhale through the mouth.

MISS EMELINE PETERSEN

None who saw Miss Emeline Petersen as the gracious queen of the Orange County Carnival of Products last year, will fail to be interested in her marriage to Philip A. Lor of San Francisco, which takes place tonight at the Petersen home on Spurgeon street.

The affair will be one of wide interest, as the bride-to-be won friends all over the county during her brief but delightful reign over the kingdom of Orange. Indeed her reign was a momentous one to the lovely carnival queen, for it renewed the acquaintance, previously made, of the bride and groom of tonight's happy event.

Miss Petersen will be greatly missed from Santa Ana, where her sweet voice has given pleasure in concert, choir work, or the social circle, while her pleasant manners have endeared her to all with whom she came in contact.

Willard DuBois, who is now a full fledged doctor in Swansea, Arizona, arrived at home last evening after bringing mechanician Wrigglesworth of the Lexington, one of the entrants in the recent Phoenix road race, into Los Angeles to be treated for a broken arm. Dr. DuBois left for his field of labor in Arizona this afternoon. He is assistant to Dr. Frank Cartmell who has the medical contract for some of the mines at Swansea.

Judge Wilson was an all-day visitor in Los Angeles today.

Mrs. V. V. Tubbs was a morning traveler to Los Angeles.

Mrs. Dean Starrett came down from Claremont last evening to remain over this evening for the wedding of her sister, Miss Emeline Petersen.

Three-Fourths Are Women
—Careful observers among the medical profession estimate that of those who seek the services of a physician three-fourths are women.

Many of these women are without question in need of surgical treatment, but perhaps the majority of them will be greatly benefited by medical treatment only.

In the course of treating such ailments, physicians have demonstrated beyond question the value of certain drugs in their treatment and, following the formula used by a physician especially successful in such cases, Rexall Vegetable Compound has been placed upon the market.

Many women have learned by experience that their ailments were of such a nature that they themselves might administer satisfactory treatment. While we do not recommend such a procedure, but strongly advise that you consult with your physician, we cannot speak too highly of the value of Rexall Compound for use in such cases.

Please remember that Rexall Vegetable Compound can be obtained only at our store—The Rexall Drug Store. Large bottles $1.00. Dean's Drug Store.

STORM IN CHICAGO FOLLOWED BY HIGH COST FOOD AND COAL

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—The cold wave with its attendant windstorm, which brought suffering and death to the Middle West and Lake States Saturday and Sunday, moved East yesterday, and now is menacing the North Atlantic States.

Though the cold still was severe over the North Middle States, conditions moderated somewhat.

Food and Coal Advance
CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—Six deaths were recorded and damage that cannot yet be estimated was caused by the storm that passed over Chicago Sunday and yesterday, but the worst aftermath of all comes with the sudden increase of food prices.

Butter, eggs, potatoes, ham and dressed fowls, all took a jump, and there is nothing at present to indicate the prices are going to recede. Similar increases in prices of other foods are expected.

Thousands of Chicago's poor are forced to appeal to charity for food.

Eggs advanced 1 cent a dozen, and butter is 33 cents, the highest in two years. Nearly 100 carloads of potatoes bound for Chicago, stalled by the blizzard, were destroyed.

Even worse than the advance in food prices is the prediction that coal is going to advance sharply.

SKIN A MASS OF FIRE
—Horrible torture—pain unendurable—days when the whole body seems to be burning up—long nights of sleepless agony—

Instant relief—the skin cooled and refreshed—all burning and itching gone!

Thousands testify to this—thousands who suffer from Eczema, Psoriasis and other skin troubles, until they heard of that simple cooling wash of wintergreen, thymol and other ingredients known as D. D. D. Prescription.

J. Samuel Lewis of St. Paul, Minn., writes: "I used three bottles of D. D. D. Prescription, and now my skin, once amass of fire and irritation, is as smooth and soft as a child's."

A 25c trial bottle will give you positive proof!

I am so certain of what D. D. D. will do for you that I offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee: If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.

Call here and talk it over. Wingood's Drug Store.

HUBBY AND WIFEY WILL BOTH SERVE ON THE SAME JURY

TACOMA, Nov. 14.—"Sure, we'll both serve if called," said G. Frazier, who, together with his wife, Laura Frazier, was drawn on the venire of jurors for the December term of the superior court.

The unusual coincidence in the drawing of names of both husband and wife as prospective jurors is the first of the kind since women have been accorded political privilege of the commonwealth.

When asked whether he thought his wife and himself could agree on a verdict in case they sat on the same jury, Frazier answered: "I don't know about that. My wife generally agrees with me, but she has a mind of her own."

McNAMARA TRIAL DEVELOPED FIERY LEGAL SQUABBLES

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 14.—Because he asserted that his associate counsel, Lecompte Davis had been discriminated against in a ruling by the court, and assailed by District Attorney Fredericks for, as he alleged, refusing the defense a privilege he himself had demanded only yesterday, Attorney Joseph Scott of the McNamara defense was sharply reprimanded by Judge Bordwell today.

The entire morning session of the trial was charged with electricity, friction between the court and counsel on both sides being at times very manifest.

As a result of the morning session another tentative juror was qualified. He is William J. Andre, a carpenter, and although Davis, examining for the defense, strove so desperately to disqualify him, the district attorney's objection, which Bordwell sustained, prevented any challenge on that ground.

Andre is certain to be eliminated by the defense later on a peremptory challenge.

Scott's reprimand by the court followed an objection by Fredericks who had argued the record in the case was the best judge of the question raised. Davis declared he was unable to get a record, it having been decided for economical purposes to have no interrogations of jurors written up by the stenographers. When Fredericks suggested that he depend on his memory, Scott, wild with rage, yelled out: "We have the same rights, or ought to have, that you have. Yesterday you couldn't remember and asked for and got the records."

More angry than at any time since the trial began, Judge Bordwell rapped sharply for order.

"Counsel must not address counsel for the other side in that way. It will not be tolerated. Proceed with your investigation."

Davis then tried to find out whether Andre would give McNamara the presumption of innocence, but Fredericks objected and was sustained. He then asked Andre whether, after he had heard all the evidence he still had a doubt of defendant's guilt, although the other eleven men were convinced of his guilt, he would refuse to vote to convict merely to reach an agreement. Andre replied: "If I believed I were right you would find me at the same place, guess."

ASTORIA, Ore., Nov. 14.—Capt. Winkler, of the steam schooner "Washington," which was rescued by the little tug Tatosh last night, today told how the vessel had grounded on Peacock Spit.

"The bar was rough when I attempted to cross," he said. "We had almost reached the open sea when the starboard deck load of lumber was lost and the ship keeled over until the rail was awash. The port load was then released to the right of the vessel. I believe one of the chain drags along the side of the propeller and choked it. With the engines rendered useless, the fire was extinguished and the vessel was soon at the ocean's mercy and quickly drifted on Peacock Spit."

The Tatosh shot a line to the struggling vessel late yesterday afternoon and swung her from her critical position near the threatening rocks of Cape Disappointment. Capt. Chas. T. Bailey of the Tatosh was the hero of the thrilling rescue which was witnessed by 1000 spectators.

Who Worked at Or-Came Near Being in a Tight Place

Oxnard Courier: Sent out west by their parents, who are well-to-do residents in Joplin, Mo., to get experience in ranching and battling the world or themselves, Harry Martin and Charles Jones, both young in years, were seized by the wanderlust while working at Orange and decided to see a portion of the world on their own hook.

The complications which resulted, and which ended with them being picked up in this city by the police, are almost fictional in their character and form one of the most unique stories the local courts have produced in some time.

But for the presence on their persons of letters telling who they were, and showing them to be of good parents, the lads would have undoubtedly found themselves in a rather tight position. As it is they are on their way back to Orange to stick to ranching.

Some months ago the parents decided that a little of shifting for themselves would be good for the boys and started them for Southern California. A number of months of working caused them to decide to do a little roving on their own hook and having read of hobo experiences, secured blankets with what money they had earned and commenced "hitting the bumpers." They apparently reached here Friday, but on the road fell in with some other "Knights of the road," who naturally thought the lads were of the same fraternity. Though knowing nothing of the life of the tramp other than what they had read, they were forced to mix with the professional, and started to make a bluff at being old timers themselves.

Upon their arrival here they came upon a professional in the "hobo camp" district, and having valuable blankets and some money, thought the wisest move was to make a "stall" at being desperados. Therefore they related some blood curdling tales which made even the hardened tramp squirm. Among other things, they stated that they had pulled off several big jobs near Orange, had guns and necessary ammunition to do a few hold-ups and the like and were about to go back to Orange, where they had a pal who was fixing up a bank "blowing" to take place in a few days.

After hearing the story, the tramp communicated with the police, who for a time had reason to believe they were about to make a good catch, and a short time later the lads were in the toils and their case was placed before Judge Elliott.

The lads then presented letters from their parents and showed that they had put up a bluff. They were cautioned to discontinue their tramping and were sent back to Orange. Young Jones, it appears, is the nephew of F. A. Jones, a well known traffic man of Los Angeles.

HILL'S CORNER
Now that we men folk have invited the women folk to help us do the voting and help elect our rulers this corner would like to suggest that something needs to be done to induce the men and women to vote.
We have noticed all the way along that but little more than half the qualified voters attend to their duty in that matter and that the stay-at-home men are among the worst kickers if he public business don't go to suit them, but perhaps this thing will be better attended to now.
While it may not be practicable to pay the voter for attending to that duty, we are quite sure that should there be made provision for a discount of five ($5) dollars on the tax bill of every one who, at the time of paying their taxes, presents a certificate that they had voted at every election during the preceding year, a very large proportion of the chronic "stay-at-homes" would be found at the polling booth early in the day.
It would, of course, require a good bunch of money to meet the red and provision for that could be made by a small percentage of in- in the tax roll.
The object of this plan because of the work required certificates, but this could be easily arranged by

REALLY CURES BAD STOMACH
No Indigestion, Gas, Heartburn or Dyspepsia Five Minutes Later

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or you feel bloated after eating, and you believe it is the food which fills you; if what little you eat lies like a lump of lead on your stomach; if there is difficulty in breathing after eating, eructations or sour, undigested food and acid, heartburn, brash or a belching of gas, you can make up your mind that you need something to stop food fermentation and cure indigestion.

To make every bite of food you eat aid in the nourishment and strength of your body, you must rid your stomach of poisons, excessive acid and stomach gas, which sours your entire meal—interferes with digestion and causes so many sufferers of Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, Constipation, Griping, etc. Your case is no different—you are a stomach sufferer, though you may call it by some other name; your real and only trouble is that which you eat does not digest, but quickly ferments and sours, producing almost any unhealthy condition.

A case of Pope's Diapiesin will cost fifty cents at any Pharmacy here, and will convince any stomach sufferer five minutes after taking a single dose that Fermentation and Sour Stomach is causing the misery of Indigestion.

No matter if you call your trouble Catarrh of the Stomach, Nervousness of Gastritis, or by any other name—always remember that a certain cure is waiting at any drug store the moment you decide to begin its use.

Pope's Diapiesin will regulate any out-of-order Stomach within five minutes, and digest promptly, without any fuss or discomfort, all of any kind of food you eat.

TELEGRAPH FIGHT HAS BEEN DECIDED
Western Union Must Extend Same Facilities to Competitor as to Entire World

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Public Service Commission of New York state decided yesterday a fight which has been going on before that commission between the Postal Telegraph Company and the Western Union Telegraph for a year and a half past. The decision was in favor of the Postal Telegraph Company.

It appears that where the Postal company has a message destined to a point not reached by the Postal lines the Postal company has carried it as far as it could and then turned it over to the Western Union for final transmission and delivery, and the Western Union has insisted that from three to five words be added to the message and that the Postal company pay for the transmission of these additional words. The public Service Commission now decides that this is an illegal charge and orders the Western Union to discontinue it. The decree says: "A public service corporation must extend precisely the same facilities to competitors as it does the entire world. It can make no distinction between those offering it business. It must charge them alike and serve them alike."

This decision may have an important bearing on the demand of the independent telephone companies that the Bell companies shall furnish the former with the same facilities which are furnished to the public. It means a large saving of money to the Postal company.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

The opening of the week found few changes in prices. The general tone was of firmness, notwithstanding that there was only a moderate volume of business. Receipts over Sunday along most lines were light.

The light receipts of eggs served to strengthen the market, and there was a firm tone throughout the day. Eastern fresh and storage eggs were in good demand at firm figures. Arrivals were 67 cases.

Butter receipts were 14,368 pounds. There was a good outlet for the limited receipts of fine creamery butter, and the prevailing quotation of 32½ cents on this grade was firmly upheld. Inferior grades were inclined to be weak, and prices shaded to keep a fair movement of the stock.

With light arrivals the cheese market firmed up materially. Oregon daisies advanced ½ cent. Imported cheeses were in exceptionally light receipt, and handlers moved their light holdings a shade over quoted figures. Arrivals of cheese were 5565 pounds.

The potato market was unchanged over last week as far as prices were concerned, but dealers were not anxious to dispose of their holdings at a sacrifice. The bulk of the receipts came from the Longport district and this variety was quoted at $2.10 a hundredweight. Receipts were 8652 sacks.

The sweet potato market ruled steady. Arrivals were 9 sacks. The bulk of the receipts of onions which were liberal went into storage on account of greenness. The market continued firm. Receipts were 600 sacks.

The fruit market showed little activity. There was considerable hold-over from Saturday, but most of the stock was unattractive. Good solid fruits were firmly upheld in prices.

Apple arrivals were fairly liberal, but there was a poor movement; most of the sales were of small lots. Colorado Jonathans held firm from $1.90 to $2.35 a 4-tier box. Oregon Spitzenburgs sold from $2.75 to $3.00 a box. Receipts were 9407 boxes.

There was only a light movement of pears and the best Bartletts sold

AT THE COURT HOUSE

DOCTORS SAY
HE WAS INSANE

With two physicians testifying, in their opinion S. H. Overacker was insane when he killed G. A. Winn, Attorney Jud Rush and B. E. Tarver this afternoon closed the defense, and District Attorney West and Deputy Koepsel began their rebuttal testimony.

The physicians examined by the defense were Dr. R. A. Cushman and Dr. J. R. Medlock. A long hypothetical question was read to each witness. This question recited all of the various testimony concerning Overacker's mentality, his queer acts, his quarrels with Winn and the incidents of the shooting, and at the end of the detailed statement came the question: "Was he sane or insane?" Drs. Cushman and Medlock answered "insane."

When the prosecution reaches the stage in its rebuttal that it wishes to meet this testimony, several local physicians will be put on the stand, probably Drs. Wehrly, Dryer, Ball and Clark. The question to be put to them will be a statement prepared from the prosecution's point of view.

The first witnesses called on rebuttal were David Jensen and Jacob Willets, who considered Overacker sane.

The will of "Old Sam" Plastini, the Newport Beach fisherman, was filed for probate today. The will, signed by his mark on Oct. 24, 1911, a few days before Plastini's death, leaves the estate, valued at $550, to an old friend, Ned Kevich, of Newport Beach. L. S. Wilkinson is the executor. Clyde Bishop is attorney for the petitioner.

Petition Filed

To Be a Citizen
William Henry Key, a Placentia rancher, has petitioned for final letters of citizenship. He came from Canada in 1902. His witnesses are R. F. Porter and H. C. Head.

Case Appealed
Papers in an appeal from the Fullerton justice's court were filed yesterday. Judgment in the case was in favor of the Wickersheim Implement Co. and against J. C. Sheppard, for $65.75. Sheppard appeals. Head & Marks are attorneys for the plaintiff and E. E. Keech for the defendant.

PANAMA CANAL TO LURE MANY ENGLISH
TOURISTS TO WEST

Los Angeles Tribune: Kenneth A. Oswald of London, connected with a large British shipping firm, arrived last night at the Van Nuys hotel from San Diego. He is traveling about the United States, this being his first visit to the coast, and predicts an influx of English tourists in the west as soon as the Panama canal is completed.

"English tourists," he said, "now come to New York, get as far west as Indiana or Missouri, feel that they have seen the important part of the country, and then go back home. But with the opening of the Panama canal things will be different. They will then embark in their ships from England, go to see the wonderful canal, pass through, find themselves in the Pacific, and go right on to California, from where they will then work back toward England."

"England is watching the progress on canal work closely. It means much to her in a commercial way. Not only will trade be made easier, but England expects her shipbuilding interests to be stimulated by the vast increase of shipping trade."

IN THE JUSTICE'S COURT

SHOW PEOPLE RAID
WALNUT ORCHARD

Men connected with the Wild West show made a number of small raids on Good Adams' walnut orchard, near the showgrounds. Three of them were arrested by Policeman Heard.

Changes Charge

This morning the felony charge of receiving stolen goods, brought against Loomis R. King, was dismissed and a new charge, petty larceny, was filed against King. He pleaded not guilty. R. Y. Williams is King's attorney.

The first charge was that King received a keg of brandy stolen from the Santa Fe depot at El Toro. The new charge directly charges King with the theft. The complaints were sworn to by C. E. Rothenhoefer, a Santa Fe special agent. The defendant asserts that one of his witnesses was scared out of the country.

Back Broadcloth Coats---Special $15

If you are hunting a staple, serviceable coat for all-around wear, one that is good on all occasions, and one that will not go out of style before it is half worn out, our advice is to buy a black broadcloth coat. A black broadcloth is absolutely correct for street wear, dress coat, or evening coat. If you get a trim, tailored model it is good from year to year as long as it wears for there are very few changes in a coat of this style.

Now, we have black broadcloth coats as high as $27.50 if you want the best. But we have one special value which we consider the best that has ever been produced for the money. It is a handsomely tailored coat, neat, trim, with the half fitted back, perfectly finished from the collar to the hem. The cloth is an excellent quality of black broadcloth, jet black, and the kind that holds its color and finish. And the coat is full satin lined. Now as to price: We thought so much of this coat that we bought a full line of sizes up to 49 inch bust measure, and have marked this excellent garment as a leader at only $15.00. We have never seen the equal of it at the price.

Silk Dress Cords 50c

Here is an excellent value in new silk dress cords. They are 2 1/4 yds. long, fine silk covered, with all silk tassels. We have them in all colors. Price 50c.

COWBOY PARADE ON STREETS
USHURED IN WILD WEST SHOW

Cowboys and cowgirls were on Santa Ana's streets this morning, astride cow-ponies. Indian men and Indian women, also astride cow-ponies, were there, too. They were in the parade of the 101 Ranch Wild West Show, which is in Santa Ana today, and will continue here until after the performance tonight.

The parade was an unusually good parade for a Wild West Show, and contained among other features a wagon on which were a buffalo bull and a buffalo cow. There was also a woman riding a steer. The Indians looked every bit what they are—Indians.

The performance this afternoon drew a large crowd, and it was a crowd that way in no way disappointed. The riding, roping and stunts were tiptop entertainment.

PIONEER MINSTREL
WILL LIFT VOICE
ON ANOTHER SHORE

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14.—John L. Carnecross, the pioneer minstrel and for years the proprietor of the only theater in the country devoted exclusively to negro minstrelsy, died yesterday at the age of 77. Mr. Carnecross' playhouse, the Eleventh Street Theater, was one of the institutions of Philadelphia.

Mr. Carnecross was the father of several beautiful daughters, who were never permitted to visit their father's theater while he was there, the minstrel not wishing them to see him in blackface, and they heard his splendid voice only in the seclusion of the home circle.

DON'T HUG
A DELUSION

Something "Just as Good" an Impossibility—If Not the Original Have Nothing at All

—For a woman to adorn her head with false braids, puffs and rats, or a man to wear a topee, is like buying an off-brand hair preparation instead of Newbro's Herpicide. The "false hair" and "off brand" are both substitutes for the real thing. The original is always conceded to be better than any imitation or substitute. "Something just as good" is a heresy of the rankest kind.

Newbro's Herpicide is the original remedy and does as promised. Years of success and thousands of satisfied users have made it standard. Herpicide kills the dandruff germ, keeps the scalp clean and stops falling hair. Its proper use before baldness appears makes false hair and wigs unnecessary.

There is no uncertainty. The purchaser gets positive results or money is refunded. It is sold and guaranteed by all druggists.

"Applications may be obtained at good barber shops and hair dressing parlors."

Send 10c in postage for sample and book on "The Care of the Hair" to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich.

FEELING AGAINST
COMMERCE COURT HAS DEVELOPED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—An acute situation developed in the career of the commerce court today as the result of its decision in turning down the order of the Interstate Commerce Commission granting lower mountain rates to interior mountain cities, and talk of abolishing the court, the movement so warmly advocated by Representative W. Sims of Tennessee recently, is again rife in the national capital.

Sims' followers point to the repeated action of the commerce court in overruling the Interstate Commerce Commission, resulting in frustrating a ten years' "fight" on the part of interior and western cities for lower railroad rates.

The commerce court emphasized its authority under a law that grants exceptions to the application of the long and short haul clause, declaring its belief that the cities having water traffic are entitled to lower rates than cities where there is no water competition.

This was a severe blow to Spokane and Reno, and other interior cities, which sought to have their rates equalized on the basis of through rates to the Pacific coast.

What More Could He Want?

"What is your father's objection to me, Millie?" asked the young man. "He says you have no application, Gerald."

"No application!" he echoed bitterly. "I wonder if he knows I've been coming to see you twice a week for nearly six years!"—Chicago Tribune.
